

Uber + Flytrex

On September 18, 2025, Uber announced its drone delivery service, partnering with Flytrex, an Israeli startup headquartered in Tel Aviv.

About Flytrex

Founders:

Yariv Bash (ex-IOF, founder of Mahanet, “defense forces creativity camp”)

Amit Regev (former IOF intelligence)

→ FLYTREX IS AN EXISTING DOORDASH PARTNER SINCE JUNE 2025

Dual-use capabilities:

- Beyond Visual Line of Sight (BVLOS)
- 6.6 lbs payload
- Cloud-based command & control
- Speeds up to 32 mph
- Flight heights up to 230 ft.

Expanding ambitions beyond food delivery toward larger payloads and longer-range operations.

ISRAEL'S RECORD OF DUAL-USE REPURPOSING

FLYTREX'S DUAL-USE CAPABILITIES FIT A WIDER PATTERN: ISRAEL HAS A PATTERN OF TURNING CIVILIAN TECH INTO TOOLS OF WAR IN GAZA AND THE WEST BANK. EXAMPLES FROM FRANCESCA ALBANESE'S UN REPORT: CATERPILLAR (CONSTRUCTION→DEMOLITIONS) MICROSOFT/AMAZON (CLOUD→SURVEILLANCE).

TAKE ACTION!!

- CHECK IF YOUR PENSION FUND OR UNIVERSITY ENDOWMENT INVESTS IN FLYTREX INVESTORS.
- BOYCOTT UBER/DOORDASH: DEMAND DIVESTMENT FROM FLYTREX-LINKED FIRMS

Sign up at Ethics.VC to receive upcoming factsheets, investor briefings, and in-depth reports.

Flytrex – Investors

● OURCROWD

Israel-based, launched the $50m Israel Resilience Fund (2023), which funded Edgybees, producing technology crucial for IDF operations.

● ISRAEL INNOVATION AUTHORITY

Collaborates directly with Israel's defense sector. Approved defense-led partnerships with Elbit and Israel Aerospace Industries.

● BRM GROUP

Seed investor in Check Point Software, a cybersecurity firm tied to Israel's defense and Israel Aerospace Industries.

Additional Investors:

TechAviv, Backbone Ventures, Matias Ventures, Benhamou Global Ventures, b2venture, and Armada Investment Group.